On being made acquainted with the decision of the Executive, Scott was apparently in a different, and said he had anticipated it. Hogan was almost stupefied.

The Government has ordered a handsome marble tablet to be placed over the grave of the Constable Brown in recognition of his bravery.

Scott (Moonlight) has written thirty pages of foolscap, for presentation to the Executive, explaining the unfairness of the trial of the Moonlight gang.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

Adelaide, December 23rd.

A large and influential deputation interviewed the Chief Secretary to the Government, with a view to the proposed arrangements under which the P. and O. Company's mail steamers call at Glenelg on Sundays. The Hon. William Morgan said that if the P. and O. Company could not make any alteration the Government would remonstrate with the home authorities, and if that failed, possibly they might take some other action. The deputation were very troublesome in Adelaide, destroying the lawns.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

Perth, December 7th.

Mr. Forrest and the party have arrived at Perth, and were publicly received by the Government and municipal authorities. His old exploring party, Tommy Pierce, died at his arrival at Albany.

Mr. Alexander Forrest has presented the Government of Western Australia with a living eucalyptus, brought from the northern territory. The military headquarters have been removed from Perth to Fremantle.

NEW ZEALAND.

Wellington, December 28th.

Analyst's report on the New Zealand, 1885, refused all further communication with the Government, and likely to be a refuge in the King Country. This may delay the Governor's intended visit to Sydney.

Owing to the present unsettled state of political affairs, the visit of Sir Hercules Robinson, Governor of New Zealand, to Sydney, has been indefinitely postponed. Sir Hercules, however, hopes to be able to go before the close of the International Exhibition.

NEW GUINEA.

Essene, December 27th.

From New Guinea the Rev. Mr. Chalmers reports that he has visited the eastern end of the island, where he found the natives fighting. Cloncy Bay, the scene of the massacre on board the Prize of the Legion, there was no appearance of the natives, and only the remains of the village and plantations were to be seen. It is supposed that the natives had recently killed the place and punished the natives. During his western trip round a portion of the Papuan Gulf, Mr. Chalmers found the most peaceful and thickly wooded. The natives were friendly, and he was well received. Several natives were discovered, and it was ascertained that the Port Moresby natives periodically visited these localities for trading purposes, making long voyages in their open canoes.
